JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Plaintiff and Defendants have conferred and jointly request that the Court extend the current briefing schedule because the facts relevant to Plaintiff’s claim continue to evolve. Specifically, the parties request that the Court grant a roughly two-and-a-half month extension to the current briefing schedule, see ECF Nos. 12, 21, 32, in order to allow for continued developments relating to Plaintiff’s medical care and daily life at the United States Disciplinary Barracks (USDB). These developments may narrow the scope of the dispute in this lawsuit, may result in some of Plaintiff’s claims becoming moot, or at the very least will provide the Court with a more complete record on which to evaluate Plaintiff’s Eighth Amendment claims. This is Defendants’ third request for an extension of time, and Plaintiff’s second request. The parties have good cause for seeking this extension, as set forth herein.

Since the last extension granted by the Court, see Order of Nov. 18, 2014 (ECF No. 32), facts that are relevant to Plaintiff’s claim have continued to change, and Defendants’ counsel have provided Plaintiff’s counsel with information regarding these factual developments. [REDACTED] motion to dismiss be due by March 30, 2015; Plaintiff's merits reply and opposition to the motion to dismiss be due by April 20, 2015; and Defendants' reply on any motion to dismiss be due by April 30, 2015. Aside from these deadlines, granting this extension motion would not require moving any other deadlines in the case.

The parties jointly and respectfully request, therefore, that the Court enter the attached proposed order extending the briefing schedule for the reasons set forth above.
